अणुदर्पण ANUDARPAN

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the dedicated team of teachers who have played a pivotal role in the creation of Anudarpan, our e-magazine for the year 2023-24. Their unwavering commitment and passion have shown that the sky is the limit for those who truly love what they do. Through their conscious dedication to their work, they have significantly contributed to the betterment of our organization.

The positive work culture established by the team of AEJC has not only elevated the quality of teaching and learning but has also provided our students with valuable new learning experiences. This team spirit is palpable across all aspects of college activities, including academics, cultural events, sports, and life skills. Anudarpan serves as a binocular vision, offering insight into the incredible work done at AEJC, Mumbai, from April 1st to December 31st, 2023. This edition is a humble and honest effort to encapsulate the essence of our collective achievements.

As we believe in the transformative power of "ONE BOOK, ONE PEN, ONE CHILD, ONE TEACHER," let us collectively strive to be the change we wish to see in the world. Thank you for your exceptional contributions to our community.

Sh. K. Ramachandran
Principal

I extend my sincere appreciation to the teachers and staff for their unwavering efforts in elevating the reputation of AEJC. The ascending prominence of our institution is a testament to their dedicated work and commitment to fostering a positive work culture. Their efforts have played a pivotal role in improving the overall quality of teaching and learning, thereby enriching the educational experiences of our students.

Special acknowledgment goes to the editorial board of our e-magazine, Anudarpan, for their commendable work. I believe that the content featured in Anudarpan will serve as a source of inspiration for future batches, encouraging them to strive for excellence and contribute towards taking AEJC to new heights. Thank you for your exceptional contributions.

Sh. Udhav Suryavanshi
Vice-Principal

Creating a magazine within a short timeframe was undoubtedly a challenging task. The successful completion of this endeavor was made possible through the collaborative efforts of a visionary Principal, Vice-Principal, a dedicated editorial board, and the invaluable contributions of several individuals.

I express my gratitude to our esteemed senior, Smt. Hemamalini P N, whose draft provided a solid foundation for this e-magazine. Sh. Mahesh Mane's diligent work on the design of the front and back pages significantly contributed to the magazine's overall visual appeal. A special mention goes to the students of class XI-C – Ankita Kumari, Diksha Thapa, Anoushka Puthran, and Tejas Verma – for their contribution to the literary corner by typing English poems. Smt. Neha Bhosale (LA), Akshat Sahu and Ayaan Shaikh of class XI-A played a crucial role in designing the pictures featured in the magazine. The collective efforts of everyone mentioned above were instrumental for me to design and edit the magazine. My sincere thanks to each individual for their dedication and hard work.

Dr. Rahul Laxman Khillare
PGT English, Executive Editor

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND OF THE JUNIOR COLLEGE

AEJC, Mumbai was established in 1971, in the pristine environs of Anushaktinagar ensconced in the lap of nature with wooded hills as the landscape. The state-of-the-art structure of AEJC is a spectator's delight and the pride of every AEESian. AEJC comprises of a three-storeyed building, spacious with well-ventilated classrooms, modern laboratories, a treasure house of knowledge for a library and a well-planned auditorium. In 1971, AEJC was started with Science, Commerce and Arts streams under the Central Board of Secondary Education. On popular demand, CBSE was replaced with M.S. Board in 1977 adopting Science and Commerce streams. Vocational Courses were introduced in 1983 comprising of Electrical Maintenance and Electronics. With a good response to the Vocational Courses, Computers was inducted in 1990 and Information Technology in 2000.

Examination & Result

We are committed to discovering each child's unique potential by addressing individual, social, emotional, and academic needs. We desire that each of our students will develop a love for learning that will inspire them throughout their lives. The academic performance of a college reflects the hard work of the teachers and the talent of the students. The students of AEJC were given ample opportunities and proper platform for testing their knowledge. In the academic year 2023-24, AEJC conducted two Unit Tests, one Terminal Examination and one Prelims till the month of December for class XII. One more Pre-Board Examination is planned in the month of January.

For class XI, one Unit Test and one Terminal Examination have been conducted till the month of December. One more Unit Test and the Annual Examination will be conducted as per the schedule. AEJC has continued the tradition of producing bright results in the academic session 2022-23. The pass percentage of class XII Science was 95.4 and Commerce was 100%.

Whispers Of Wonder

Would the waves stop?
When I die,
Would the sea praise me?
When I am alive

When the sun rises
From the east
It's as beautiful
As when sets in the west

When we hear the birds and rides
Our mind is at ease
When we see the birds flying
We feel very pleased

When the yacht moves in the sea
Everyone feels good and Say Oh! I see!
Saravanan Raju, Class XII-A

The Moon

The sun sets, bringing shadow of the night
The sun rises to guide us with its light

Along with the stars, shining bright
It's quite pleasant to see such a sight

Even if it's high and far in the sky
But at night it still provides me comfort when I cry

Where the sun is like fire
The moon is like ice

It's so cool and quite Still beautiful with its color dull white

Anoushka A.Puthran, Class XI-C

Shiva on earth

Shiva on earth
Providing food who worth
Poor from his attitude
But no gratitude
Under the control of the market shine
Followed from the birth the dark line
A devotee of the mother field
Bows to her for each yield
Lives in a hope of blossoming harvest
But always the one who be the target
With the hard work of day and night
Irrigating the land with dreams at height
He is the one who is the pay of debt
Sleeps in the excitement of growing guest
He is the kisaan
The only feeder till the last stan'

Ankita Kumari, Class XI-C

The Plight of Farmer

The farmer who works all day and night
O man have some plight

Having some hope in his eyes
Working from the sunrise

He is working the whole day
So that something falls for him by the bay

He is looking for a clue
In the drop of dew

He is working in the twilight
Hoping for a speck of light in his dark night

Hoping for a miracle
He is ready to tackle.
Atharva S. Gholve, Class XI-C

Moon Shines Alone

Moon Shines Alone,
In spite of the darkness,
It spreads its brightness.

The Moon looks as white and bright as a pearl from far,
But it has scars from near,
It follows me everywhere I go at night,
And brings me a hope of light.

Moon shines alone,
And glows as much it can,
Telling us to survive through the tough flows.

Moon grows every night,
Bringing a hope to my life,
It shines alone,
Telling us the power to live alone

Shrishti Kumari, Class XI-C

The Moon, My Moon

The Moon in the dark sky,
Is so far away yet,
It, it feels so close to Me, My Heart

Feels like it says,
Says to me, to be me,
It says to me
Stay wild, moonchild.

The moon, perhaps my Moon
Is perfectly imperfect
Yet symbolizes beauty,
He leads me, when I am lost.

The Moon is the sky
Is beauty in imperfection
Moon calms those in pain,
And soothes hearts in vain.
Durva Dalvi, Class XI-C

This Day of My Life

Ohh, it's the night
The night that is light
I can hear the sea
And, its peaceful breeze

Ohh, the sea is making some noise
This noise is filled with peace
Under this fear moonlight
Ohh, how lucky am I to have this night

The moon is shining in this night
Ohh dear, the view is so beautiful tonight
In this moonlight
No matter where I am
This moon is as beautiful as before

Ohh dear, I wish this time stops by This peace is so peaceful
Lord, thanks for this moon and thanks for letting me live this day of my life.
Diksha Thapa, Class XI-C

The Moon in Night

The moon in night,
Looks like a shining light.
The black patches on the moon;
Remind's me of the paths of Mumbai soon;

Moon is round;
Like a cricket ball on ground.

In the dark night sky,
The moon glows like a white bright light.

Present in the night
But disappears in night

The child of five;
Thinks moon as a cookie in this life.

The moon in night,
Looks like a shining light.

Aachal Bhat, Class XI-C

A Precious Diamond

It shines like a precious diamond,
Watching us from above the night sky
It plays hide and seek with clouds,
While I eagerly wait for it to come out.

When I look at it, I feel something serene,
I know for a fact that I'll Cherish this beauty for evergreen,
It proves to be a fighter as he prevails in the darkness,
Giving me hope to fight my problems in life.

I always wonder doesn't it feel lonely,
But then I smile when I see the stars give him company.
He tends to move swiftly with me as I walk part the ground,
Don't worry he will keep you company all night long!

Sneha Ranjit, Class XI-C

Moonlight

The city is full of darkness at night,
He who saves us and brings some light is moonlight.
The time when people are scared and feel fright
Our superhero joins the fight
Who is he? Moonlight.
When people feel lonely at night he who brings some light is moonlight.
His source is moon and he makes our night polite is called moonlight.
Moon is himself a pride because it doesn't need anyone to shine,
He who makes our night delight is moonlight.

Raunak Kumar, Class XI-B

The Source of Happiness

The moon in the sky,
Looks so beautiful in night.
High high very high,
It comes every night
Just to bring happiness.

At night there is a darkness
But the moon brings happiness
It looks so beautiful with the stars
And it looks little empty without stars
We can say any things to moon,
They will never tell it to other.

While walking I have always noticed That they are alone but Always happy in every situation.

Sanika Gawande, Class XI-B

Oh Moon !

Fading out is the moon,
Rising up is the moon,
Shining out in the sky,
Sets down the lilac butterfly,
Dawn sets in,
Birds cave in,
Nature's tube light,
Up in the sky, shine bright.
The moon shows its might, shining bright,
The breeze won't give a fright,

Up rise the tides,
Oh! No! The critters need to hide
Oh child, fear not,
The moonlight will keep you warm and hot,
Oh moon !Oh ,moon! Show us your might,
Don't let the breeze give us a fright.
Round and bright, you are a whole,
Your rays of hope won't scare a mole,
Shine bright ,oh moon! As you are,
Don't let the clouds hide our path

Niharika Sodaye, Class XI-C

When The Sunlight Die

When the sunlight die
The moon looks at us from the dark sky
Lying on the bed of stars
Giving us the best vibes
He plays in the water
Making it more bright
Oh! Look at his pale light
As he sail on the sky tonight
They enjoy his company when they sit and talk
O! look it's the moon making the sea shore walk.

Nimai Mishra, XI-K

Shadow Of Silence

In the shadow of silence, where my secrets lay,
Dream takes root, concealed from clay,
No eyes behold, no whispers part take
A clandestine realm, where my dreams awake

Beneath the moon's soft and silver gaze,
A sanctuary, where love always stays
Stars above, like diamonds gleam,
Igniting the wishes, in dreamers scheme

In quite realm, where my dreams take flight
Moon is the only reason why I am quite.
Mountains high and valleys wide.
In my dream, hopes for moon still abide

For in a dream's cafe, I find my way,
A path of a purpose, a moonlight day
My dream, a deacon, a guiding light
I chase it's glow through velvet night.

Ishaan Grover, XI-B

The Hope

Today there's desire to reach
Tomorrow ignite your fire to reach
themoon
Up above the sky
There is a hope to reach the sky.

Moon never takes a holiday
To light up the sky
Take holidays as much as moon
So there will be growth in life and it will boom.

Jump towards the moon
It will never throw away
Jump towards the goal
It will never throw away.

Be bright as much as the moon
So no one will question you
Be the one who takes responsibility of sleep
So no one else will dare to wake up you.

Stalker For a Kid

Stalker for a kid
Standard of beauty for a man
Mystery for scientist
Natural satellite for Earth

Playing many roles
Visible every night
But still a mystery for everyone

Don't know your origin
But together from birth to death
Surrounded by stars but your Glow outstands everyone

Reaching you is everyone's dream
But even a mystery after Stepping on you Patches are Present on you but never Seen a face more beautiful than
Yours

The Bright Light

The bright light
Shinning in the sky
On a dark night
When roaming all alone

With loneliness
We walk, it becomes a friend
Brings us a companion
And a smile to share

When lying under a tree
Just staring at its glory
It gives us that comfort
And cherishes our soul

As every night passes by Every night it shows
With it's blooming vibe
And it's amazing shapes

The Farmer

On the first ray of sunshine
The farmer strikes again
Working day and night on the crops
So that one day they might shine
No matter the rainy days
No matter the scorching sun
No matter the snow blizzard
The farmer will always work

Even if he is sad
Even if he is angry
Even though he doesn't want to
He will work for his family
After all the time and effort
He spends to grow the crops
He goes to the market to sell them
Only to find out it's real worth
Day and night he works again
Working for a living
Only to find out
It was just as same as the beginning

The Moon

Your one side is full of light
And other side is full of dark

You don't have any gravity
And the atmosphere but your Still important for Earth.
You are the only who close to us.
We meet every evening night.

Sometime you look half
Sometime you look full
But anytime I see you
You look beautiful
I know you are far from us
But I think you know what is happening on Earth
We have sent a rocket to Show our love

माँ

माँ, प्यारी माँ डाटती तो बहुत हो तुम
परंतु प्यार भी उतना ही करती हो
अगर मुझे चोट लग जाए
तो चिंता भी तुम्ही करती हो।

एक सुकून सा रहता है हम सबको
जब हम तुम्हारे पास रहते हैं
जब हम दूर रहते हैं
तब तुम्हारे आंचल को याद करते हैं।

तुम्हारे हाथों की क्याही बात करे
इनमें तो जादू है
यह जब सर पर फिरे,
सारी चिंता दूर कर देते हैं
और यही हाथ जलते कटते
पूरे घर को संभाल लेते हैं।

एक सुकून सा रहता है हम सबको
जब हम तुम्हारे पास रहते हैं
जब हम दूर रहते हैं
तब तुम्हारे आंचल को याद करते हैं।

बहुत सुंदर हो तुम
दुनिया में सबसे ताकतवर हो तुम
मेरे लिए मेरा भगवान हो तुम

क्योंकी मेरी प्यारी माँ हो तुम ॥

विसरा साऱ्या जगाला पण आईवडिलांना कधी विसरू
नका,
आनंत उपकार आहेत ज्यांचे; त्यांचे मोल कधी विसरू
नका,
घोषाण पुजले ज्यांनी अनेक अरे ! तुमच्या एका
जन्मासाठी....
हृदय त्यांचे कधीही तोडू नका.
उपकार त्यांचे आयुष्यभर विसरू नका.
मुखातील घास काढून, अरे ! ज्यांनी तुम्हाला घास
भरवून मोठे केले, त्याग त्यांचा कधी विसरू नका.
अमृत पाजले ज्यांनी तुम्हाला, तुम्ही त्यांच्यासाठी विष ओकू नका.
ऋण त्यांचे या जन्मात तरी फिटणार नाही, आनंदी ठेवणं त्यांना तुम्हीही विसरू नका.
पैसा मिळेल आयुष्यात भरपूर,
पण आईबाप परत मिळतील का?
केलेल्या त्यांच्या कष्टांची किंमत,
तुम्ही फेडू शकाल का?
कृतज्ञ होणं कधीही विसरू नका
विसरा साऱ्या जगाला पण आईवडिलांना कधी विसरू
नका !!

It's ok to forget me

When you enjoy the high point of your life
It's ok to forget me...
When you enjoy your free time with family & friends
It's ok to forget me...
When you receive rewards in your life
It's ok to forget me...
When you are fully distressed in your life
It's NOT OK to forget me...
As an AEJC Teacher, I will be always there for you...
